13. Board may review, discuss, and take action on clarification of A.A.C. R3-11-502(L)(10) and (L)(11) regarding signing/initialing medical records.

Ms. Whitmore reviewed the rules pertaining to veterinarians and staff signing or initialing records. The rule does not require an individual to initial or sign next to each individual entry that person makes in the medical record. It is interpreted that veterinarians shall initial or sign the record a minimum of each daily patient visit, although it would be prudent to initial/sign next to one's notes when multiple veterinarians are working the case.

14. Board may review, discuss, and take action on request for Temporary Permits pending submission of proof of graduation and additional documentation.

a. Kelly Simms

b. Anna Stobnicki
